

Costa Rica

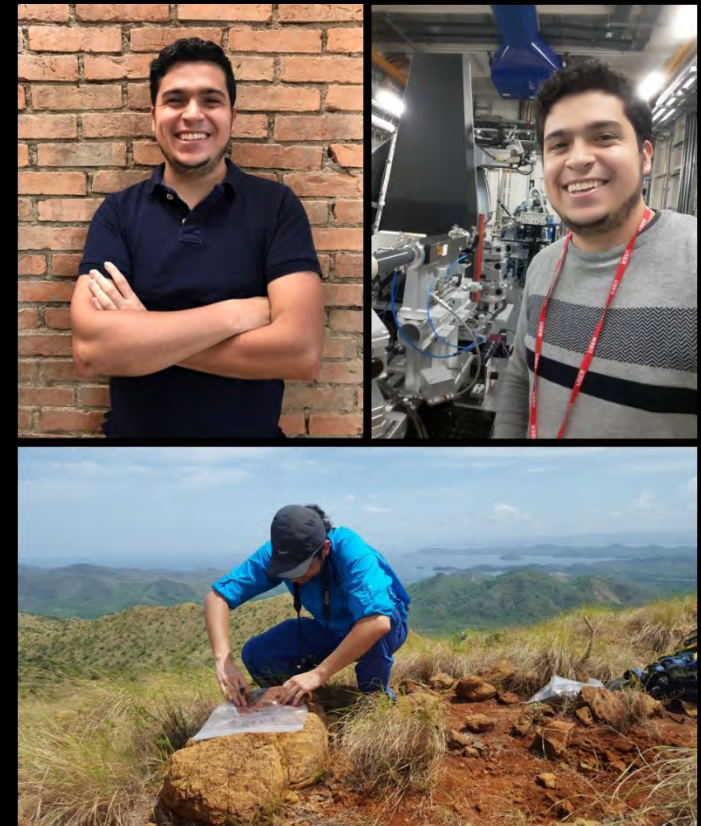

In 2019, along with the Latin American Ambassadors, we took part in the first ISME Regional Meeting. This year we welcomed a new Young Ambassador, Dr. Agustín Solano, and we are organizing virtual activities for local scientists

Adrián A. Pinto-Tomás & Agustín F. Solano-Arguedas

Costa Rican Undergraduate Student, Bradd Mendoza, explains his research during the First ISME Latin American Meeting held in Valparaíso, Chile.

Dr. Solano-Arguedas research explores the geomicrobiology, biogeochemistry and the critical zone of Costa Rican ecosystems.
